SOME one has said that Spain is the only country in the world where two and two make five. We would suggest that the author of the Republican Campaign Hand-Book go over there and compile an arithmetic for the use of the schools in the land of the Don. The Hand-Book gravely asserts that the McKinley bill has raised prices for the farmer's products, while the cost to the consumer has been slightly lowered!

The Democrats of the Eighteenth Judicial Circuit have nominated Hon. Sam Dickey, of Webster county, as their candidate for Judge. It is a splendid selection. Mr. Dickey is a true blue Democrat, an upright man and able lawyer. Although the circuit has a Republican majority, Mr. D.'s fitness and popularity promise to elect him. We hope such will prove the case. He will fill the position with credit to himself and honor to his constituency.

For the benefit of the ignoramus who who edits the De Soto Facts we will state that the editor of this paper was a Democrat long before R. W. Denholm set foot on American soil, or knew aught of the blessings of a free government. Denholm neither knows nor understands the institutions of this country nor its politics; neither can he ever learn; he isn't fashioned that way and his political dissertations are amusing, harmless and the laughing stock of the public generally. He opens his mouth and he puts his foot in it every time.

Who Pays the Tariff?

A cigar manufacturer at Grand Island, Nebraska, addressed the following letter to Mr. McKinley during his recent canvass of that State. He desired information very much, but as yet Mr. McKinley has not been heard from.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Aug. 3, 1892.
My Dear Mr. McKinley—I see by the Associated Press that in your great speech at Beatrice you assured the people that the foreigner paid the tariff taxes, and presuming that you know what you are talking about I address you for the purpose of gaining a little information. Last week I received a bale of Sumatra tobacco used for cigar wrappers. The bale weighed 112 pounds. The bill for this bale of imported tobacco was $315.60. The cost of the tobacco alone was $91.60. The tariff taxes at $2 per pound as fixed by your bill was $224 making total cost of $315.60. You say the foreigner pays the tariff tax, and as this $224 tariff tax has been charged up to me in the bill from the wholesale tobacco house, erroneously, according to your statement, the information I desire is this: where can I find the foreigner whose duty it is to pay this $224 tariff? I want to draw on him at sight for the amount. By giving this desired information you will confer a great favor on one of the protected cigar makers of America. Yours truly,
HENRY SCHLOTTFELDT.

German Prosperity Under a Protective Tariff.

In an interesting interview a correspondent of The Voice had with the distinguished socialist leader, Herr Wilhelm Liebknecht, on the progress of the socialist movement in Germany, the great leader drew the following picture of the effects of taxation and the protective policy on the German people:

"Discontent is rapidly spreading in Germany. The masses of the people are being ruined by taxation and bad legislation. All our legislation has been made by and in the favor of the wealthy land owners and capitalists. Our common laws require that the industrial class of Germany pay 300,000,000 marks every year above the natural price of corn. Of these 300,000,000 marks about 75,000,000 marks go into the pockets of the State to promote militarism, which is crushing and the remaining 225,000,000 marks go into the pockets of the rich landlords. By the protective tariff system industry has been given into the control of great capitalists who are ruining the small merchants and producers, so that in Germany the middle class is fast disappearing, and soon we shall have only a few thousand very wealthy people and on the other hand extremely poor people."

Mr. Reid and the Force Bill.

It is interesting to learn Mr. Whitelaw Reid's present opinion of the Force bill as a national issue. As reported by the New York Tribune, the Republican candidate for Vice-President now regards the Force bill as a scarecrow, and the spectre of Negro domination as a bogey conjured up for campaign purposes only. "There is not any such thing," said Mr. Reid in Brooklyn on Saturday night.

When Mr. Whitelaw Reid's party was doing its utmost to enact the Force bill two years ago, Mr. Reid's paper, the New York Tribune, was urging the party to push the infernal thing through, regardless of consequences. The Republican name for the Force bill was the Elections bill. In an editorial article entitled "No Cause for Surrender," the Tribune put the Force bill issue above all other issues, and frankly admitted the main purpose of that odious measure of Federal interference and Federal force at the polls.

"The Elections bill," said the Tribune, "carries in itself the assurance of future Tariff bills by the hundred."

That was on August 15, 1890. Mr. Whitelaw Reid's newspaper spoke the truth. The Force bill carried within itself assurance of future Tariff bills by the hundred, but also the assurance of any other legislation that the Republican party might be disposed to fasten upon the country. It meant a perpetual Republican majority in Congress. It means the same thing now.—N. Y. Sun.
